

GENERAL TERMS AND CONDITIONS OF THE PARTNERSHIP NEDERLANDSE VISSERSBOND (DUTCH FISHERMEN'S ASSOCIATION)

Article 1 Application

The following terms and conditions, to be referred to as the GPTC, apply to the partnership agreements stipulated in articles 452 q and the following in the Dutch Commercial Code which have been entered into in writing and declare these terms and conditions applicable.

The terms used in articles 436 and 437 of the Dutch Commercial Code have the following meaning:

- Maritime employer: the crew member who has the lead as referred to in article 8;
- Seaman: the crew member;
- Position: the partnership relationship;
- Service to be done; the work to be carried out;
- Give orders: make the decisions;
- Employment contract: the partnership agreement;

The GPTC regulates the rights and obligations between the contracting parties jointly with the NEDERLANDSE VISSERSBOND (Dutch Fishermen's Association) Partnership Agreement

Article 2 Owner and Crew Members

Contracting Party 1 is the owner of the fishing vessel, hereafter to be referred to as "the owner", and contracting party 2 are the crew members of that vessel, including the owner of the vessel if he is a crew member.

Article 3 Contribution and risk

- 3.1 The owner undertakes to make available to the partnership the fishing vessel named in the partnership agreement which, at his expense, has been made seaworthy and suitable for immediate performance of the fishing tasks, and all the catch rights and days at sea granted by the Dutch government, and to keep this vessel in working order; this all in accordance with that stipulated in articles 4 and 5. The contracting parties understand that the risk in respect to the fishing vessel in the partnership will be borne by the owner.
- 3.2 The owner is not obliged to provide any compensation if the vessel is not seaworthy or suitable for fishing due to unforeseen circumstances.
- 3.3 If the owner does give the contracting parties compensation, the owner is authorised to reduce said compensation by the contracting parties' share in the result.
- 3.4 If the partnership is not able to make full use of the said fishing rights, the rights will be for the free disposal of the owner. If the partnership decides to buy extra fishing rights, this will be at the expense of the partnership. If the partnership is not able to make full use of the bought fishing rights, they will be sold for the benefit of the partnership when possible.
- 3.5 The crew members contribute their labour, knowledge and diligence as well as the diplomas they have acquired.

Article 4 Maintenance of vessel

Contracting parties agree that said vessel and equipment will be maintained at the expense of the owner, in the understanding that small everyday repairs to fishing equipment, network, engine and ship etc. and everyday painting will be carried out by all the contracting parties as much as possible, on Saturdays as well if necessary. The materials required for these repairs and the painting will always be provided by or on behalf of the owner.

Article 5 Replacing the vessel

Replacement or not exploiting said vessel and/ or equipment involved in the partnership is at the owner's discretion and at his expense.

Article 6 Substitute

- 6.1 Each crew member is authorised, with the permission of the other contracting parties, to temporarily replace himself by a substitute with similar qualities. If one of the remainder of the crew is not in agreement, he must make this known to the owner in writing. The other contracting parties are authorised to indicate one or more substitutes for the specified period if another of the contracting parties is unable to contribute his labour, knowledge and diligence for a certain period and has not indicated in time a replacement who has been accepted by the other contracting parties.
- 6.2 The legal position of the substitute in respect to the other contracting parties will be governed by the stipulations in the partnership agreement at hand, the applicable GTC and the stipulations in the the partnership agreement supplement.
- 6.3 The owner will sign the said partnership agreement supplement on behalf of the contracting parties, including the contracting party to be replaced by the substitute crew member.
- 6.4 The substitute will fully replace the person in respect to the legal position and fully or partially replace him in respect to the financial position; this will be regulated by the contracting parties including the substitute crew member.
- 6.5 If the substitute does not have all the financial rights and obligations of the person he replaces, the contracting parties, including the substitute, will determine a temporary share scheme in respect to the division of the results, which will include the temporary share for the substitute.

Article 7 Temporary partner

- 7.1 With permission from the majority of the contracting parties, one or more fishermen may be indicated to temporarily join the partnership in respect to fishing activities when required. The owner signs the partnership agreement supplement on behalf of the contracting parties for this purpose.
- 7.2 The legal position of the temporary substitute for his period of inclusion in respect to the other contracting parties will be governed by the stipulations in the partnership agreement at hand, the applicable GTC and the stipulations in the partnership agreement supplement.
- 7.3 The partnership agreement supplement will specify the proportionate share of the result the temporary substitute has a right to during the period he is included in the partnership. This share will be deducted proportionally from the shares of the other contracting parties. The stipulations in the partnership agreement in question concerning dividing up the result apply to the rest without prejudice to the relationship with the temporary contracting party.

Article 8 Leadership

- 8.1 The contracting parties assign the captain's work in the partnership to contracting party 2a as referred to Article 452q of the Commercial Code (Wetboek van Koophandel). If the captain is not able to perform his duties, the owner will indicate a replacement captain. If the owner is not able to do this, the replacement captain will be indicated by the person who has had the leadership before the replacement.
- 8.2 The contracting parties together determine where, when and how the ship travels and fishes and the harbours where, when and how the catch will be sold, or how it is offered for sale, unless this is left up to the captain.

Article 9 Social Fund for the Fishery Partnership

- 9.1 The owner undertakes, in as far as this has not already been done, to put forward all the contracting parties sailing on the same vessel and included in the partnership agreement to be included in an insurance against incapacity to work with the Social Fund for the Fishery Partnership, hereafter to be referred to as the Fund, and to comply with all the obligations arising from the statutes and regulations of the Fund, starting on the day the partnership agreement commences.
- 9.2 The owner is authorised to deduct the insurance premiums owed to the Fund from each share in the result and is obliged to pay these deducted premiums to the Fund immediately after the invoice from the Fund has been received.
- 9.3 The owner is obliged to immediately transfer any money he receives money from the Fund on behalf of an insured person to the insured person.
- 9.4 The owner is obliged to immediately credit any contribution refunds he may receive from the Fund to the rightful part(y)ies.
- 9.5 In the case of any disputes with the Fund, contracting parties 1 and 2 undertake to fully and unconditionally submit to the decision of the arbitration committee as named and referred to in the statutes of the Fund .

Article 10 Notice term for agreement for indefinite period

- 10.1 The partnership agreement, entered into for an indefinite period, can be terminated by either of the parties during the time the seaman is on board the vessel in any harbour where the vessel is loaded or unloaded, in accordance with the specified notice period.
